Surprise Farewell Party Held Wed. For Bill Edwards

On Wednesday evening, May 25, the United Church assembly was the scene of a farewell party for Bill Edwards, who leaves to join his parents at Toronto.

Everyone came dressed in their western "duds" and the room was decorated with saddles on saw-horses, cowboys and cowgirls, and western signs.

The evening was spent with relay games, a contest, a pantomime, "Saddling the Horse," by Miss Willison, with Bill Edwards, Laura McCoy, Delbert Fulkert and Dorothy Ball taking part; an "obstacle" game with Alice Willison, Duane Gebers, Alice Ginter and Jackie Gilbride participating.

Rev. J. W. Bainbridge gave the farewell speech, followed by the presentation of a "ten-gallon hat" and a silk kerchief.

"For He is a Jolly Good Fellow" was then sung, followed by a cowboy sing song, and lunch was served in a Western, while cowboy music was being played.

The evening was brought to a close with the quartet, Don Robertson, Margaret Robertson, Dorn Gilbride and Alice Ginter, singing a song for Bill which had been composed by Miss Willison.

East Community Hall Scene of Musical Festival

The Music Festival for the south-east section of the Olds School Division was held Monday, May 23, at East Community Hall, Carstairs.

Thirteen schools were in attendance. The festival was non-competitive and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience of students, teachers and parents.

The whole school choruses gave every child present an opportunity to uphold the prestige of his or her own school. The outstanding entries in this section were: "The Hallelujah Chorus," beautifully rendered by Neapolis, and "Sherwood," the chorus offering by Rosebud.

Each of the 78 entries in the different classes deserves special mention, and great credit is due to the teachers and the pupils who so ably presented them.

All present enjoyed meeting Mrs. Baffey, who acted so capably as music adjudicator.

Mr. Crisp kindly consented to adjudicate in the elocution section and the outstanding entries were from the Clovermount and Mona schools.

SUCH WAS LIFE

Flying ants, like mosquitos, used to have their innings in pioneer days. They were poisonous; they got into your eyes, ears and nose, and down your neck in spite of any netting you may have worn to keep them out. Their bite was itchy, burning, raw and swelling.

While riding across country after a warm rain I got the full benefit of their vengeance—what could I do? There was no professor on any one else of a learned type to solve the desperate problem. It was more than a sixty-four dollar question.

While taking the punishment I noticed a caravan of Indians coming around the bend of a trail on the hillside. They were whooping up a ki-yi-yi yeepee in a jolly style—chiefs, squaws and kiddies were having a gay time. About two feet over their heads they held branches of brush and as they drew near I saw swarms of flying ants whirling around the branches.

It did not take me long to learn my lesson, and I felt a warm thank you to the unlearned brother Indian.

Senior Baseball Team Wins First Money at Carstairs

The Didsbury senior baseball team, piloted by George Wilkins, played stellar baseball in the Victoria tournament at Carstairs and emerged victors of the day. In the first game of the day Cremona had too much power at the bat for Carstairs and were worthy winners. Ken Brian worked on the mound for Cremona and had control of the game from the outset. Features of the first game was the consistent heavy hitting of the Cremona club.

In the second game Didsbury was drawn against Crossfield. Jay Tuggle showed old time form on the mound for Didsbury, going the full nine innings with ease. Crossfield pitchers found the going pretty rough as Didsbury batters were hitting freely. The game ended with Didsbury winning by a 20-1 score.

The final game of the sports developed into a hotly contested affair which was called after seven innings on account of darkness with Didsbury leading by a 9-1 score. O'Neill and Thierleran formed the battery for Didsbury, with the latter giving a masterful display of catching throughout the entire game, while O'Neill found little trouble in handling Cremona's heavy hitters under control.

Jack Ginter of Didsbury was umpire in chief for the tournament. Didsbury: Thierleran c, Tuggle, O'Neill p, Rodway 1b, Schumaker Morgan 2b, Shantz 3b, Roberts ss, Evans lf, Hughes cf, Sandeau rf, Suits: Freeman, Morris, Kimmel, Barrett, Goossen.

Wilkins, rallied in the last three innings of the game to romp off the field with a 19-7 win. ## Government Calls Special Session to Deal With Gas

Premier Manning said last week that a special session of the Alberta legislature has been called for July 1 for the purpose of enacting further legislation with regard to the conservation and pro-rata of natural gas and oil.

Other main reason for calling the session, the Premier said, is to make legislative provisions for dealing with applications by companies which might wish to export natural gas.

It was announced that Attorney General Lucien Maynard will publicly release as soon as possible information so that the public will be kept informed of the government's stand in the matter.

More than a month ago, Premier Manning and government officials indicated that a special session might be called and an unofficial caucus of Social Credit members was held behind closed doors here about two weeks ago.

Notice of special session must be made by order-in-council and filed with the clerk of the legislature as soon before proclamation of a session.

The last special session in Alberta was held in July, 1915, to consider measures for refunding the provincial debt.

SAFE DRINKING WATER CAN BE OBTAINED FROM DEEP WELLS

Regarding the article appearing in The Didsbury Pioneer in May on the chemical contamination of the shallow wells in Didsbury.

It was stated that residents with babies and young children should no longer obtain their drinking water from the shallow wells, but switch to a safe supply obtainable from a deep or drilled well.

A safe drinking water may be obtained from the following deep wells:

The Town well situated beside Phil Andrews' garage.

The well at the house of Mr. Fred Belfenstein in Waterloo St.

The well at the Rosebud Health Unit.

It is again emphasized that drinking a water with a high nitrate content is detrimental to health and may be particularly so for young babies. Using such a water for cooking purposes as opposed to drinking is not safe either, as boiling in no way removes this type of contamination.

The continued use of these shallow wells for all purposes other than drinking or cooking is quite in order.

The water obtainable from all deep wells can be considered safe as the chemical contamination is from seepage from old privy pits. Such seepage is extremely unlikely to enter water obtained from deep wells.

M.B. Ch.B., D.P.H.
Medical Health Officer.Annual Reunion Of Redeemer Confirmands

The annual reunion service of all the confirmands of the Didsbury parish was held at Redeemer Lutheran Church on Sunday, May 29, at 7:30. Pastor Fox spoke on "Confessing Jesus" and showed that the Master demands such confession from His followers. This confessing Jesus must be based on faith in Christ as the sole Savior of the world and must further be manifested in the Christian's life. He urged the assembly to re-dedicate themselves to the service of their Lord. About 150 attended this service.

Following the service a social was held in the basement of the church under the auspices of the Walther League. After some games were played, the group assembled around the tables and after a cake with 50 candles had been brought in the League celebrated the 50th anniversary of the International Walther League. The president of the past year, Erhard Reinhardt, as well as the secretary, Erna Reinhardt, the treasurer, Walter Artman and the newly elected president for the coming League year, Fred Lewis, all gave short speeches. The Pastor concluded the celebration with prayer.

The local League also took this opportunity to celebrate Pastor Fox's birthday. Another lighted cake was brought in, and the President of the League, Erhard Reinhardt, handed the Pastor an envelope with a cash gift, while the assembly sang "Happy Birthday." About 125 attended these celebrations.

SHUN POISON IVY:
ENJOY THE PICNIC

It's time for a reminder about poison ivy. Many a day's outing has been spoiled by coming in contact with this plant.

The best preventative measure is to learn to recognize poison ivy and not to picnic or sit near it. Although it generally grows as a trailing vine, or as a number of separate plants forming patches of varying thickness and size it may climb a tree or telephone pole for a considerable height.

Its leaves are arranged alternately on the woody stem with each leaf bearing three leaflets which may vary in size, shape, color or outline, but will always be in threes. Clusters of greenish-yellow fruits about the size of peas develop on poison ivy in some localities and these fruits generally turn white. Poison ivy is the only common plant in Canada having wholly trifoliate leaves and white fruit.

The rash which can prove so distressing to many people is caused by coming into contact with the non-volatile, sticky substance which is on the plant. This substance may remain active on tools, gloves, shoes and picnic baskets for months. Dogs, cats, or even smoke from burning ivy can transmit the substance.

MERRY "OUT OF BLUE" HAS FIVE BIG STARS IN OUTSTANDING CAST

With the principal roles of Eagle Lion's new frothy, romantic comedy, "Out of Blue," played by Geo. Brent, Virginia Mayo, Turhan Bey, Ann Dvorak and Carol Landis, the picture, hailed by the studio as the "best time of your life" comedy, will show at the Didsbury Opera Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 6, 7 and 8.

Based on an original story by Vera Caspary, author of "Laura" and "Bedelia," "Out of Blue" is set in New York's Greenwich Village and involves a handsome artist and a prize dog; a Philadelphia debutante interested in finding a mate—for her dog; a henpecked husband and a domineering wife; and a beautiful artist's model with a penchant for tipping the bottle and complicating men's lives.

George Brent and Carol Landis as the mis-matched couple have the next door terrace apartment to artist Turhan Bey. When the painter's prize dog buries a bone in the front terrace, Carol forces her husband to take legal action, Virginia Mayo, lovely enough to be an artist's model, comes calling on Bey with the idea of mating their dogs. Ann Dvorak manages to turn up in the front and Bey apartments, under the influence of alcohol—and love, much to the consternation of Carol and Virginia.

But when Ann passes out neighbors swear to the police that they have seen a body on the terrace, then the trouble and the laughs begin as Ann changes from a corpse to a rather lively lady and back again to a corpse—to everyone's bewilderment, including her own.

The supporting cast is headed by Elizabeth Patterson, Julia Dean and Richard Lane. Leigh Jason, who recently directed the same studio's "Lost Honeymoon," handled the choreography of the comedy romance. Miss Caspary with Walter Bullock and Edward Eliscu

CONTINUE GRAIN SUBSIDIES ON SHIPMENTS

The Canadian Government will continue to pay freight on western feed grains until the end of the present crop year, it was announced recently.

The policy was put into effect in 1941 to provide markets for western coarse grains and to provide feed at a lower cost to assist farmers in B.C. and Eastern Canada to produce bacon, eggs and other products for shipment to Britain under war contracts.

The policy provides for free shipment of feed grain eastward from the lake head and to B.C. from Alberta. Cost of these shipments amounted to $119,500,000 at Feb. 1949.

SEARCH FOR CANADIAN MINERALS INTENSIFIED

Field parties of the Geological Survey of Canada will make a further study this year of radio-active mineral deposits of vital importance to the Canadian mining industry. Quebec-Labrador iron ore occurrences and areas favorable to the accumulation of oil, gas, and coal will be investigated and mapped. There will be seventy survey parties in the field.

PLAN NEW SYSTEM OF TEACHER CERTIFICATION

Proposals for simplification of the system of Alberta teacher certification have been announced by Eric C. Ansley, Secretary of the Alberta Teachers' Association.

W.E. Frame, Chairman of the Board of Teacher Education and Certification, has forwarded Board recommendations to all superintendents of School Divisions, and to secretaries of School Divisions and Districts.

"The changes recommended," said Mr. Ansley, "are highly desirable and perhaps long overdue. They would reduce the number of certificates now being issued in the province from 17 to three. The proposal is fully in accord with the policies of the Alberta Teachers' Association who have led the movement for simplification of the certification system."

Under the new system only three teaching certificates will be issued: Temporary—following one year Faculty of Education Training after grade 12.

Standard—following two years Faculty of Education Training.

Professional—following three years of University.

"Actually," pointed out Mr. Ansley, "no teacher will lose anything by the change, and in the long run, all will benefit. Many of our very best teachers hold Second Class certificates under the present system, and the change will see the Second Class certificate disappear, to be replaced by an Elementary and Intermediate certificate. Teachers with First Class certificates and a degree will receive a Professional certificate upon request. The many other certificates now in use will be permitted to gradually die out, and eventually all teachers in Alberta will be qualified under one of the three certificates."

Estimates are that nearly 50 cents out of every dollar of your personal income tax goes to pay baby bonuses and maintain the organization to handle the issuance of cheques.

MOTHS BREED IN OVERLOOKED PLACES

According to entomologists of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, one of the worst breeding places of clothes moths is often overlooked. If there is a hot air furnace, there are probably whole colonies of moths in its cool air pipes. Moths feed and flourish on the accumulations of lint which collects in the pipes.

A vacuum cleaner with a long extension will remove the lint easily, or even a long-handled broom will serve. The inside of the pipes should then be sprayed as far down as possible with a household spray containing DDT, or naphthalene flakes or paradichlorobenzene crystals may be scattered in the pipes.

Fishery Survey
Dogpound Creek

A report on a recent fishery survey conducted on Dogpound Creek by the Alberta Fisheries Branch has been received by the Didsbury Fish and Game Association and below is the text of the report: Dogpound Creek was examined July 19, 20 and 21, 1948. It consists of about 65 miles of water beginning north of Cochrane and running north into the Little Red Deer River. The upper half ending at Beaverdam Creek, was the only portion examined. On this half, the uppermost 15 miles are the most important. This portion of the stream has a moderate flow, gradient about 37 feet per mile, and numerous deep beaver ponds. The stream and ponds are densely overhung with scrub; so much so that casting a fly is a difficult and tricky business. The channel is 10-20 feet wide, composed of mud mainly with stones on the bottom of the occasional riffles.

In this upper part the water is clean, but distinctly brownish; the pH is 7.7; the beaver ponds are often murky with a transparency of only two or three feet. Maximum water temperatures of this region are about 60-65 degrees F.

The bottom food in the riffles consists of very large numbers of small animals; one sample from a square foot of riffle yielded—123 blackfly larvae; 127 mayfly nymphs; 23 stonefly nymphs; 13 caddis larvae; 5 midge larvae; 1 midge pupa; 1 nematode; 1 water mite.

Although large numbers of bottom animals are present, they are small forms, and the total volume per square foot was only 0.8 cc. In the beaverdams a rich fauna of water bugs and diving beetles exists.

This portion of the stream supports a good population of eastern brook and brown trout. They are heavily fished and very shy; it takes an expert angler to fill his creel. It is possible to fish all day, as we did, and catch nothing. However, careful observation reveals numerous trout in the beaverdams and, in the evenings, they may be seen jumping. We caught one brown trout, 9.4 inches long, weighing 5 ounces. This fish was an immature male, two or three years old—fairly good growth.

Further down, at the bridge east of Cremona, the stream is about fifty feet wide, shallow, rocky and open. Temperatures here are some 10 degrees higher, possibly beyond the normal range for trout. Many dace and suckers are present here.

Conclusions:

The upper Dogpound is a warm, moderately rich stream, with plentiful deep quiet beaver ponds, ideal for brown trout. The lower Dogpound is probably too warm for trout.

At present rates a railway box car has earned less than 80 per cent of its replacement value by the time it is retired from service.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

The past came to light this week when F.E. McLeod, pioneer merchant in Lacombe who recently sold his business to H. A. Leal, came across a book containing his advertisements in the old Western Globe, Lacombe, back in 1909, 1910 and on.

It was on August 17, 1909, that Mr. McLeod's first ad appeared as "Successor to the W.E. Lord Co." Antiquated by modern standards, the ad nevertheless carried a punch and a personal touch largely missing from the commonly seen newspaper ads of today.

One of the features of Mr. McLeod's early advertising were "After Supper Sales," with sale items being sold at reduced prices starting at 7 p.m. Saturday evening. Most astonishing features of the ads, however, are the prices. A lot of water has flown under the bridge since boys' bathing trunks were sold for 15 cents, for instance. This price was advertised in August just 40 years ago.

"Empress" shoes for women, complete with buttons or laces, sold for $3 a pair "in those good old days" with "moderate priced" shoes obtainable at $1.25 per pair.

Women's sweaters could be purchased as low as $1.75 each, while men's sweaters had a wide price range of from 90 cents up to $3.50. For the youngsters, a wool sweater was obtainable for as little as 50 cents, although top grades ran as high as $1.25.

Men of the district will turn an envious eye back to 1909 prices when stiff white front shirts were sold at a sale price of 65 cents each.

Warm wool gloves went to customers for 25 cents a pair, and lovely wool shawls for women sold at 40 cents.

Larger items, such as men's overcoats were marked as high as $12.50 for the best, heavily imported wool tweed, but other satin-lined models sold for $9 each.—The Lacombe Globe.

WILL WE HAVE AN EXHIBITION THIS YEAR?

A meeting of the directors of the Didsbury Agricultural Society has been called for Friday, June 3, at 1.30 p.m. in C.E. Reiber's office to discuss the possibility of holding the annual fair this year, and a good attendance is requested.

Owing to the small attendance at the annual fairs the past few years and the apparent lack of interest by citizens of town and district, it has been suggested that the exhibition be cancelled. Unless more interest and support is forthcoming the Directors will eventually have no other alternative. However, it seems that this is not the proper attitude to take at the present time. We know that other attractions and more prosperous times have been the reason for some exhibitors to discontinue exhibits, but for the good of the district as a whole it would be a serious blow to have the annual fair cancelled.

After all, one of the main reasons for the agricultural exhibition is to bring together the best products that a district can produce, so that all can see the quality of these products. If competition is keen and exhibits are outstanding it encourages others to do a "little better" and our whole district benefits from the higher quality of livestock, swine, poultry, grasses, grains, home cooking, sewing, etc.

We believe it would be a grave mistake for the Directors to discontinue the annual exhibition. On the other hand it has been a serious error on the part of exhibitors and spectators to have withheld their support of a life-long undertaking that has shown results in the prosperous district surrounding Didsbury.

If you want the fair to be continued you will have to support it, and your opinion could be more appropriately expressed at the Agricultural Society meeting on Friday, June 3.

A Farm Storage Tank Doesn't "Cost" IT PAYS!

A farm storage tank permits you to buy and store enough fuel at one time to be sure of having a supply on hand when you need it. No costly delays when tractors stand idle, waiting for fuel to be delivered.

It helps to keep fuel clean and avoid plugging of fuel lines and carburetors with grit, dirt or water. The tank can be mounted with enough slant to cause any impurities to settle away from the outlet.

It saves time in re-fueling tractors and trucks. If the tank is mounted overhead, Gravity flow is quicker than pumping or pouring. It prevents the spillage of the pump-and-pail method... or the wastage of the "last gallon" that is often left in the bottom of each barrel.

A farm storage tank pays in added safety, because it can be located well away from house, barn or shed.

Tanks come in three sizes. The price is reasonable. See your Imperial Oil Agent.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED*INTEREST IN MINING INCREASES

The growing interest in mining in Canada is reflected in increased demands for mineral specimens and identification of samples received by the Geological Survey of Canada. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1948, 6,500 samples from prospectors, students, and others were identified. Numerous applicants submitted samples and received information personally. More than 67,500 specimens were distributed to meet requests. These included 826 sets of prospectors' mineral samples and 874 sets of prospectors' rock specimens.

CANADA IS BIGGEST SOURCE OF SUPPLY FOR GREAT BRITAIN

"Canada is today what she has never been before, our biggest single source of supply, accounting now for 11 per cent of our imports, as against only 9 per cent before the war," declared the Rt. Hon. James Harbord Wilson, President of the British Board of Trade, in addressing businessmen and others attending the 170th District Conference of Rotary International, held in Ottawa on May 16, 1949. "Even in the case of some of those commodities whose purchase we have had to limit through lack of dollars, we are devoting a higher proportion of our total expenditure to Canadian produce than before the war. Of the total amount we spent last year bringing timber to our shores, Canadian timber accounted for nearly 34 per cent. In the five years before the war, Canadian timber accounted for only 18 per cent. Similarly with wheat and bacon, a far higher proportion of our imports are coming from Canada than before the war."

"There is an impression widely held in Canada that, as a result of mistaken or wrong-headed policies in London, Canadian manufacturers and producers are being driven from their traditional markets," he said. "If my visit does no more than provide some re-assurance on this, and if during my visit I succeed in convincing Canadians that we do not seek our economic destiny elsewhere to the exclusion of Canada, it will not be in vain."

The people of the district extend their sympathy to family and relatives of Alf Mjoiness who passed away in Calgary Hospital on Thursday. Alf moved here with his parents over 40 years ago, being among the first settlers in Bergen. Alf and his wife, Jean, made their home here for some time before moving to Sundre to establish the Sundre Hotel. Known to all as "Uncle Alf," he will be greatly missed by all his friends.

Every available man in Sundre was called to fight a fire which was raging four miles north of Bergen and a half mile east. The blaze started at the Pincroft school barn which was burned to the ground, and it swept over about a section of land before being brought under control with the use of bulldozers. The area since has been constantly patrolled.

WE SHOULD BE OPTIMISTS

Cynic never built a nation. Donald Gordon reminded the annual meeting of the Dominion Mortgage and Investment Association. While he did not minimize the grave problems ahead, the Deputy-Governor of the Bank of Canada was frankly optimistic and he quoted the solid growth of the last decade to bolster that happy view.

Canadians, said Mr. Gordon, are among the most fortunate of the peoples, better fed than ever before, their industries and economy largely undamaged by war. Population since 1938 has increased by 16% but employment in the same period has risen 40%. Gain in real production, after allowing for difference in dollar values. Mr. Gordon estimated at no less than 75% capital investment after a similar allowance up 140%, and general standard of living up 50%.

—Don't forget the Sunday School convention at the United Missionary Church on Sunday, June 5th. Rev. W. McArthur of Regina will be the special speaker.
